SEPARATE DEFENSES

1. Defendant denies negligence.

2. Plaintiff was negligent.

3. The Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted.

4. The accident and injuries alleged were caused or contributed to by the negligence of others over whom this defendant has no control and for whom he has no legal liability.

5. While denying any negligence for the accident and injuries alleged, should the negligence of plaintiff be found to be not greater than that of this defendant, this defendant demands plaintiff's damages be diminished by the percentage of negligence attributable to plaintiff, pursuant to the Comparative Negligence Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:15-5.1 et seq.

6. Pursuant to Federal Rule 11, the cause of action as stated is frivolous and the defendant will, at the conclusion of the matter, seek those sanctions allowed by law.

7. While denying any negligence, defendant asserts that the damages sustained by the plaintiff in this matter were caused directly by the actions of the plaintiff. To that extent, there should be an assessment of liability against the plaintiff in this matter against which defendant would seek a reduction of any damages assessed against it pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:15-5.1 et seq.

8. Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages is violative of the United States Constitution as applied to the States and is, therefore, barred.

9. Defendant denies the existence of or breach of any duty and further denies the existence of or breach of any contractual obligation, express or implied.

10. The suit is barred by the Statute of Limitations, N.J.S.A. 2A:14-1 et seq.

11. This defendant is guilty of no intentional misconduct which proximately caused any injury to plaintiff.

12. Any injury occurring to the plaintiff was the direct and proximate result of the plaintiff's own conduct.

13. Plaintiff's claim is barred by the Doctrine of Assumption and Risk.

14. Plaintiff's claim is barred or, at the very least, the damage to which it is entitled, is reduced by virtue of the Doctrine of Avoidable Consequences.

15. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, this defendant has conformed to the laws and regulations of all other statutes and countries upon which this litigation impinges.

16. Plaintiff's claims are barred by estoppel.

17. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the Doctrine of Unclean Hands.

18. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:2-1 and N.J.S.A. 59:2-2, as to the immunities available to the public entity and/or public employee.

19. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:2-3 and N.J.S.A. 59:3-2, as to the absence of liability from the exercise of judgment or discretion.

20. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:2-4 and N.J.S.A. 59:3-3 as to the non-liability for any injury caused by adopting or failing to adopt a law or by failing to enforce any law.

21. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:3-5 as to the non-liability of a public employee for an injury caused by its adoption or failure to adopt any law or by its failure to enforce any law.

22. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:4-7 as to the effect of weather conditions on the use of streets and highways.

23. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:5-4 as to the failure to provide police protection service.

24. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:8-3 through 59:8-7 regarding failure to provide adequate Notice of Claim.

25. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:8-8 through 59:8-11 regarding failure to timely file Notice of Claim and/or failure to file Notice of Claim as set forth therein.

26. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:9-2 concerning interest and limitations on judgment.

27. Defendant asserts the applicability of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 59:9-3 through N.J.S.A. 59:9-5 concerning limitations on contributions, comparative negligence, and discretion to award attorney's fees.

28. This defendant is guilty of no intentional misconduct which proximately caused any injury to plaintiff.

29. The defendant, if involved at all, acted within the scope of their authority and in good faith in the performance of their duties.

30. The defendant, if involved at all, acted reasonably and properly under the circumstances.

31. No malicious intent of causing a deprivation of plaintiff's civil rights and/or constitutional rights has been factually set out against the defendant.

32. Plaintiff has failed to show approval or acquiescence of defendant of the action as alleged.

33. Defendants are not persons as required by the statutes and plaintiff has failed to allege that the alleged injury was the result of actions taken under color of official policy, custom, or usage of defendants.

34. Defendants were carrying out their duties as officials and employees of the City of Elizabeth, and are entitled to qualified immunity under the statutes.

35. The defendant denies the allegations of improper conduct as set forth in plaintiff's Complaint; however, the alleged misconduct does not rise to the level of a constitutional violation.

36. The defendant acted in good faith and without malicious intent to deprive plaintiff of constitutional rights.

37. The municipal defendants are immune from plaintiff's claim for punitive damages.

DEMAND FOR STATEMENT OF DAMAGES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the undersigned requests that you serve upon us a written statement of the amount of damages claimed in the above-entitled action.

DESIGNATION OF TRIAL COUNSEL

Pursuant to the rules, PETER H. SPAETH, ESQUIRE, has been designated as trial counsel on behalf of defendant, Officer Nicolas, in the above-captioned matter.
